GARRETT MCMILLAN

— Front-End Web Developer and Project Manager from Wilmington, NC

Self-taught and hardworking web designer who is passionate about creating beautiful and effective user experiences. I ensure positive website outcomes by utilizing my dynamic technical, communication, and design skills to propel both clients and team into the future. Through understanding key client information and developing innovative design solutions, I will guarantee the success of all objectives entrusted to me.

TECH SKILLS

— HTML
— CSS
— Javascript
— React
— JSX
— Bootstrap
— React-Bootstrap

DEV TOOLS

— VS Code
— iTerm2
— Github
— Git
— NPM
— Familiar with Netlify
— Familiar with Figma

EXPERIENCE

Manager — Twin City Hive, Winston-Salem, NC, July 2018-February 2020

— Developed meaningful client relationships and managed 20+ vendor, wholesale, and shop accounts to drive revenue
— Utilized Square Analytics and Google My Business to gain customer insights and plan accordingly
— Maintained efficient work environment by managing schedules, creating timelines, training, and supervising employees
— Created innovative solutions to quickly resolve issues during day-to-day operations

Campus Staff — Reformed University Fellowship, Nonprofit, Boone, NC, Aug 2016 — June 2018

— Increased brand awareness through developing strategies based on values, demographic analysis, and relationships
— Managed teams responsible for engagement, development, and networking, as well as facilitated weekly team meetings
— Managed donor relations through Karani (fundraising CRM), Expensify, and Mailchimp
— Utilized email marketing campaigns to maintain relationships and gather engagement analytics

Intern — Village Seven Presbyterian Church, Colorado Springs, CO, Summer 2016

— Utilized Agile project management principals and Asana to ensure team cohesion and project completion
— Fostered community of 200+ students through relational networking, event marketing, and engaging presentations
— Planned events for 75+ with engaging education and community service opportunities
— Oversaw administrative tasks including event planning, preparing publications, recruiting, etc.

SOFT SKILLS

— Strategically plans site structure and layout to build memorable user experiences for clients
— Adaptable in various situations ranging from learning new technologies to navigating relationships
— Detail-oriented project manager, team leader, and group collaborator
— Professionally engages with clients through face-to-face interaction, written communication, and relationship management

EDUCATION

Appalachian State University — Bachelor of Science in Communication Studies, 2016

PERSONAL INTERESTS

Being outside, specialty coffee, sustainable living, good design, and all things college football and professional baseball